Use consistent scale to fake distance

That's how you trick the eye into reading depth.

This works for:

- People
- Objects
- Text
- Graphics

LAYERING

- The heart balloon covers part of the letters.
- The robot overlaps the bottom text
- Some elements are behind the letters

Shadows add weight and realism

Without them, everything floats
In this design:

Robots have drop shadows

♥ Corners and edges have soft shading

The balloon string adds subtle depth

Subtle corner
shadows for mood
and realism

WHAT ABOUT THE ONES IN THE MIDDLE?

Shadows give a sense of weight.

Here we see that he is clearly standing close to us but far enough to see his full body + shadow.
